

Susan parlayed ten years as a high school teacher into a promising comedy career. (Ironically, the former teacher was a high school dropout - probably because she did not "just say no to drugs" until 20 years later.) In 2010, Susan's tour went international when she entertained troops in Kuwait and Iraq. In 2011 she performed in clubs all over the United Kingdom. She currently braves speed traps throughout the country to bring her edgy, honest comedy to the stage. www.susanfreemancomedy.com
